THE SISTERS OF THE PRECIOUS BLOOD and Missionaries of the Precious Blood are seeking a coordinator of peace, justice and ecology ministry to promote the mission of both the Sisters of the Precious Blood and the Cincinnati Province of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood through education, advocacy and action on issues of justice responding to the needs of our times.

The coordinator will be a passionate advocate for systemic change, who will work and collaborate closely with the Precious Blood communities. He/she will represent the sisters and the missionaries by networking and participating with local, state and national organizations relevant to social justice in keeping with the priorities of the Congregation and the Province. He/she will serve as a resource person to educate and provide opportunities that will lead the sisters and missionaries to a deeper understanding of the root causes of injustice that undermine peace and environmental sustainability.

Applicant must have a bachelor's degree in theology, social work or a related field, or a minimum of three years' experience in social justice advocacy or direct service to the poor, marginalized and excluded. He/she must have experience in organizing and educating around justice issues, and strong interpersonal and networking skills. Must have experience working within the Catholic Church and a willingness to learn, respect and work within the charism and mission of the two communities.

Position is full time (37-40 hours per week, including some evenings or weekends), salaried with benefits. The applicant works independently of daily supervision and is responsible to the President of the Sisters of the Precious Blood and the Provincial Director of the Cincinnati Province of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood.

Send résumé and contact information for references to Sr. Nancy McMullen, nmcullen@cppsadmin.org.
